EXPERIENCE

Brown's | Stock Associate — July 2024 - Current
500 King St. N. | Waterloo, ON
As a Stock Associate at Browns, I manage inventory by receiving, scanning, and organizing shipments to ensure efficient stockroom operations. I also handle product recalls, verifying that shoes are correctly matched in size and style before packaging them for shipment. Additionally, I assist my coworkers by maintaining a clean and organized stock area, restocking misplaced items, and ensuring smooth backroom operations. While my primary role is in stock, I also support sales and cashier duties when needed.

- Replace display shoes to maintain accurate inventory.
- Restock and organize shoe care products at the cash register.
- Assist with online shoe order fulfillment, ensuring correct items are packaged and labeled for shipping.
- Occasionally take on cashier duties, processing transactions, handling returns, and assisting customers with purchases during busy periods or staff shortages.

Johnny Fresco | Restaurant — 2021
244 Weber St. N. | Waterloo, ON
I enhanced my multitasking and organizational skills, ensuring smooth operations during high-demand periods. My responsibilities extended beyond basic duties to include proficiency across front-of-house, back-of-house, and storage areas, reflecting my adaptability and commitment to excellence in food service operations.

- Demonstrated multitasking skills by handling customer inquiries, processing transactions, and managing inventory concurrently in a fast-paced retail environment by developing my abilities to organize my workflow and optimize efficiency without compromising quality.
- Demonstrated exceptional teamwork and collaboration abilities in fast-paced environments, effectively coordinating with teamwork to ensure smooth operations and deliver outstanding service. Creating positive working relationships, communicating effectively, and contributing to the team.
